Hello MATE ROV Competition Teams!

Wishing that you could dive back into something MATE-related over the summer now that the 2024 competition season has ended?

We've got the springboard for you! Take the plunge into the 2024 NOAA Ocean Exploration Video Challenge!

You've heard about this previously and still have time to submit an entry! The deadline is August 25th, 2024. Visit the link above for additional details, including information about the opportunity for the winners to attend and present at the 2024 Underwater Intervention Conference in New Orleans, LA, USA this November.

What are you waiting for? (I'm looking at you, my friends at Northeastern! ;-)) Start coding today!

Jill
MATE Executive Director @ MTS
